Therefore, if there are Creditors, including Contingent Creditors and Disputed Creditors, who believe they have a Claim against Comair, but have not yet submitted their Claim, then they are requested to please download and complete the Claim Form at <https://www.comair.co.za/business-rescue/creditor-claims>, and to submit it to creditorclaims@comair.co.za.
7. In this regard, such Claims may be accepted or rejected by the BRPs either provisionally (for purposes only to allow a Creditor to vote on this amendment and without prejudice to the BRPs rights under paragraphs 6.9, 7.3.1.1 and the Dispute Resolution Mechanism set out in the Plan), or finally.

For purposes of determining a materially prejudicial outcome, paragraph 13.1 of the Plan provides that an outcome that results in Distributions to Creditors that would be less than the estimated liquidation dividend to as calculated by PWC and set out in Table 1, would be considered to be materially prejudicial;

if the Plan requires an amendment that is materially prejudicial to certain creditors, but not to others, then the approval of that amendment will be procured by the BRPs in writing from those creditors that have been so prejudiced, pursuant to paragraph 13.5 of the Plan; or in terms of paragraph 13.6 of the Plan, if an amendment to the Plan will be materially prejudicial and the provisions of paragraph 13.5 of the Plan are either not applicable, or not met, then such amendments will be considered at a meeting of all Creditors and will be subject to the same voting threshold as was required for adoption of the Plan.
